Pere Hyacinthe yesterday briefly disoussed the socialist campaign in the United States. According to Galignant's Messenger he said: "Father M. Glynn is a priest and a ortizen. As a priest he tesches religion in the church and as a citizen be has a perfect right to talk politics palaide of it. I have read un the newspapers of a proposal to appoint a Nuncio at Washington, and I etep is taken the Catholic church in America will lose its independence church in America, in fact, is more libe- against the passage of the bill! ral and advanced than it is in Europe."

Hynointhe fears that Father McGlynn. the leading men of Georgia. It seems has gone too far. He is persuaded, how ever, that there are great principles underlying his programme which will claim the attention of the legislature at no very distant date. On the question whether the McGlynn controversy is likely to ganse schism in the Catholic Church in America, [Pere [Hysciathe reserved his opinion until another interview.

WHISKY IN THE ARCTIC RE-GIONS.

General A. W. Greely, of the signal bureau, has written an interesting article for the August Foram, the object being to show that the use of alcoholic drinks in Arctic exploration has generally been proved unnessary or misohievous. The fact that ten and coffee, cooss, etc., bureau, has written au interesting article apport the system better and sustain the powers longer than alcohol, has indeel been frequently demonstrated, the English Arche expeditions having ascertained it by practical experiments long ago. General Greely's experience is none the less valuable and his testimony important, for the question of the nutritive ; power of alcohol has and etill is disputed obstinately. The men oited by General Greely performed the hardest kind of work with the temperature from zero to forty or fifty degrees below. They did cars and coulde to me in the purest Chi shol usually, and General Greety is of the opinion that while a small allowance of spirits may at times be useful as a mental stimulus, it should only be taken just before going of Berkshyre." Of course this sort of England he came from "The courty of Berkshyre." Of course this sort of while a small allowance of spirits may at to sleep, and never during the progress

General Greely cites instances where alcohol, when taken during work, decid. edly diminished the strength and endurange of the man. This would undoubtedly be the testimony of all who have had experience in the matter. Alcohol taken during working hours produces a temporary excitement and capacity for labor; but this passes off soon, and a her engagement to a young man who reaction follows in which the strongth reaction follows in which the strongth | Esther, however, knew that her lover falls below the normal average, and a had good qualities, and she was willing distinct lessitude is felt. There can be to take the risk. In nine cases out of no serious question as to the superior working capacity of men unstimulated working capacity of men unstrundated by alcohol. A cup of good, hot coffee in very cold weather is worth a bottle of the content of the conte out alcohol and ceased to care for it at all, so that several of them refused to drink the small allowance which was served out only once a week. The question whether the use of alcohol merely as an exhibitant is wise or necessary will no doubt be answered variously. Possibly a more harmless substitute for it might be found, but | vorite Prescription. in any case the fact seems to be established that, except for this special purpose, it is more of a hindrance than a help to Arctic exploration. And experience shows, too, that if alcohol is taken at all, to use General Greely's words, "it should be taken only after the day's work is done, as a momentary attenulus while waiting for the preferable hot ten and food; or, better, after the food, when going to bod, for then it may quickly induce sleep and its reaction pass unfelt." It might be added that the ! es: way o avoid reaction altogether is not to take dent this morning.

GEORGIAS DISGRACE. It does seem that Georgia is trying all possible means to keep itself in constant disgrace. It not only has the leasing system in vogue among lite convicts-a system which would blacken the character of any civilized state or country on earth-but it has the Glenn bill before the legislature, the leading features of which were editorially set forth m the Rezette a few days ago. It was then stated that the bill was framed as a mortal stab at the Atlanta university, which was established as a colored soldool more

But one pair of sooks will hardly her feet-for the bill makes no distipetion between the sexes,—for the crimo of teaching in any public school in Georgia, a young colored child or any colored person how to read!

Of course the question will be "Can this outrageous bill pass?" Yes, it will tkely become a law, for it has already passed the lower house of the legislature and they say it will quietly be concurred in by the senate and will be approved by the governor! It hardly seems possiple that even in Georgia this miamous agree with Father McGlynn that if that Glenn bill can become a law. Rather an Exaggerated Type The Gorman, the Frenchman, the Eng lishman, would not like to be taken for anything else; why should the American I don't know, but it is so. I have neve seen more than two or three Americans in Europe of whom I was able to believe that they would not be secretly pleased to be mistaken for Englishmen. Very often, indeed, I have had young men approach me in conversation in continental hotels of Finglish. One of these, I remember, a refugee in Paris from the earthquake parl coung fool is familiar in America, and his folly is properly commented upon. But he is after all only an exaggement type of the great average mass of Americans who swarm over the continent during the operaseason,—London Cor. New York Times.

Six Mon fiterally Bolled Alive - Four Persons Drowned by the Capsizing of a Boat Near Council Blads, Ia. -Other Casualties.

DEATH IN AN AWFUL PORM. GREEN Bar, Wis., Aug. 5.—Oue of the most terrible accidents that ever occurred here took place Wednesday night, when the stream compartment attached to the bottom of the large copper brew kettle in Henry Rahr & Son's brewery exploded, injuring seven men, six of the number dying soon thereafter. The brewery had been shut down a week, while a new boiler was put in, and Wednesday evening the lirst brew after starting un was in progress. August Delforge, a machinist, assisted by his sons, Frank and Joseph, were at the time engaged underneath the kettle in question, putting in some steam pipe. Several workmen engaged in the brewery were in the vicinity. Suddenly the steam burst the chamber in which it was confined, tearing out the walls and reduing and overturning niuring seven men six of the number coambor in which it was confined, tearing out the walls and rending and overturning the copper kettle, which held between sixty and saventy-five barrels of boiling water. Instantly the room was filled with scalding steam and beiling water several feet deep. August Delforge was struck on the head by a piece of timber, besides being in the bottest of water and steam. Frank and leaves propagate to get out of with and Joseph managed to get out of a win-dow, though terribly scalded and burned. John Biemoret was drawn through a win-dow and John B. Haibe and George Huber got out, but were fatally scalded. Doctors were immediately summoned and did what they could for the sufferers. The scene was an awful one. August Del forgolny insensible, covered with blood and barely alive. The other five injured ones were shricking and monning with it is said, has also refused to sign the warrant, and a mandanus will be asked for to compet the Judge to sign the warrant.

The authorities of Ontario have peremptority refused to surrender McCarrigle to the Montreal officials to answer the Baxter complaint. The ground on which they refuse to Indorse the Baxter warrant is that the alloged criminal likely was committed in Chicago, and was not one over which Canadian courts could exercise jurisdiction.

Crown Prosecutor James N. Greenshields, of Montreal, telegraphed his official representatives to quit St. Catharines for the present, but a watch will be kept up on McGarigle for a time. The figitive remains in the vicinity of St. Catharines, which will probably be his headquarters for the present. The schooner Blake has arrived at Port Colborne, and Capitin Irving has been delivered of another statement, which is to the effect that he carried McGarigle away from Chicago under the unpression that he wanted to take a lake voyage for the purpose of bracing up after a long spree, and that he had no suspicion of his passenger's identity until the latter had been transferred to the Marsh.

Arrest of a Notorious Burgiar.

Junney City, N. J., Aug. 5.—Detectives yesterday acrested George Farth, a notorious burgiar, who is wanted for robbing Fairedtild & Co.'s jeweiry store in Bridgeport, Coun., July 17, of $15,000 worth of aimmonds and jeweley. He returned recently from a professional trip to Europe, which is said to have been very successful. In his lodging were found jimmics, wedges, lock picks, sledges, saws, braces, bits of all kinds, over 500 keys of various shapes, wan impressions of keys and shapes, way impressions of keys and books containing elpher entries. Ten pounds of dynamito cartridges were found buried in the yard.

Tr Worked Like a Charm.

Indianapolis, Ind., Aug. 5.—John Volmer, a Wost indianapolis poultry breeder, recently contrived a novel idea for catching thieves who visited his chicken roost. It was so arranged that whenever a robber entered the poultry yard a weight would drop upon Volmer. Last night he was awakened by the alarm, As to stepped out of his door with his sind-gun the thief ran and refused to obey a command to hait. Womer flied, and the fugitive fell. He then found that the thiof was a woman named Sarah Ott, and That the entire lead of shot had entered her body.

RETURNS FROM THE STATE ELECTION.

Buckner's Majority in Kentucky Not Over Four Thousand, and the Actual Result Still in Combl-Virginin Democrats Meet.

TEXAS AGAINST PROMISITION. TEXAS AGAINST PROBLETION.

GALVESTON, Tex., Aug. 5.—The election upon the amendment to the eccustitation submitted to the people by the last Legislature for their ratification took place vesterday. All the lorge towns gave majorates against the amendment except Fort Worth, which gave 193 for it. The election, while hothy contested throughout the State, passed off quietly and the best of order prevailed at the polis.

The New returns up to midnight from out the State, passed off quicty and the bost of order mervailed at the polis.

The New's returns up to midnight from 450 polling precincts clearly indicate the Prohibition amendment is defeated by 50, 600. It will be impossible to give exact results until the official count is made. The results indicate that all the other amending the except the one extending the time of holding the Legislature have carried.

All interest contered in the Prohibition amendment. The fight for and against its ratification was conducted with great vigor. Never in the history of Texas has such a canvass been waged. It was no party issue. The ablest men of both parties were arrayed against each other in the contest, and able men from abread took part. The papers of the State discussed daily for and against until the people from one end of the great State to the other were theroughly aroused. For the people from one end of the great state to the other were thoroughly aroused. For months the question was discussed from overy rostrum and platform in Taxes.

KENTICKY'S GROUND-SWELL.

CINCINNATI, Aug. 5.—A Louisville (Ky.)

CINCINNATI, Aug. 5.—A LOUISTITE (E.Y.) special says: Seventy-six counties show a gain of 27,000 for Bradley. If the same rate is maintained in the forey-one counties to hear from Buckner will not have over 4,000 plurality. The ratio of gain per county increases for Bradley as the back county returns come in. In view of this the State is still gravely in doubt. A very fair idea of the situation is contained in the estimate of the Courier Jour tained in the estimate of the Couraci-1900's and, which says:

"The additional returns do not give any judication of a ground-swell. As far as we can judge the Dengiorate losses are due to combine and indifference in our party and indicates of constitution on the part of the Republicans. The Republicans which east sixty per cent, of the weblavoic of the State. The Republicans voted and the Democrats stayed at home. Our fourns are from fifty-six counties, which east sixty per cent, of the wholevoic of the State. The Republican vote in counties reporting is a little over sixty per cent, of the total, and the Democratic vote is altitle over fifty-sixin. "These lifty-six counties show a loss from the Cleveland majority (94,800) of 7,710. If the fails of gains and losses continues the same for the remaining forty per cent, the mpt Democratic loss will be 18,850, leaving Buckher a majority over Bradley of 21,689. If the majority is not as large us our pride demands, the Democrats have only themselves to blame."

The Courier-Journal has reports from the Democrats have only themselves to blame."

The Contien Journal, has reports from seventy-four counties out of 119. These cast seventy-seven per cent, of the entire vote of the State in 1884, when Cloveland's majority was 34,890. In these counties the reduction of Cleveland's vote has been 0.228. Applying the same rate to the remaining counties, the reduction in Burkmey's vote will be 11,988. This will leave a Democratic majority of 20,851. The returns during the hast twenty-four hours show that the Republicans do not only man their previous gain.

When they dig the burdocks out on South Main street, it will say: Excavations have been begun arrived in the city and proceeded to for twenty more houses, and when they pitch their tent on South Main street, begin to repair Milwankee street, it will blage to order, and in brief and heart say-but, pshaw, we may die of old age spoken words welcomed their guests. before that time.

-Last evening Mrs C. W. Curtis adlressed a fair sized audience at the Congregational church. She has, for several years, labored among the colored people in the schools at Marion, Alabams, under the direction of the American Mission-& Northwestern road has an evening ary Association. Her lecture consisted mainly of her own experience and observation while there. It was a faithful exposition of the present existing conditions. It showed a most lamoutable antagonism both of sentiment and practice between the races there. She said the only hope of the elevation of the colored people of the south, was through the medium of the association she repesented, whose work was to educate both in mind and morals.

-Mrs. Sasan B. Angel had builded a residence upon South Bluff street, and graded her lot in conformity to the grade of the sirect. Since then the grade of the street has been changed, and is now considerably lower than formerly. For this she clams damages. At a recent meeting of the city council, the following gentlemen were appointed to act as arbitrators: Messrs. E. G. Fifield, E. C. Smith, and E. H. Davies. This morning these gentlomen, accompanied by Attorneys C. E. Pierce for the city and T. S. Nolau for Mrs. Angel visited the place in question, which lays between South Third and Racine streets. THE MILITARY CAMP.

What Our Soldier Boys are Doing at Racine.

Interesting Camp Notes.

[Correspondence of the Gazette.]

CAMP ERSKINE, 1. RACINE, WIS., Aug. 4, 1887. Wednesday the third day of the camp was hot but a refreshing breeze from the lake rendered the day not entirely unendurable. During the afternoon the First Regiment had their first skirmish drill, Twenty rounds of blank cartridges were furnished each man and the drill and firing exercises were gone through with in a very creditable manner. The dress parade at 6:30 in the afternoon was witnessed by over 1000 spectators. But few of the men were allowed to leave the camp last night so an improvise concert troupe was organized and discoursed some fine music.
